

What should I already know?

- That people in the past lived in different homes to us.
- The Wright Brothers and Guy Fawkes were famous people from the past.

Power-Year 3

History Stone Age

Vocabulary:

period of time	The length of time something happened.
timeline	A way of organising information in chronological (time) order.
AD/BC	How we record dates on a timeline. AD is Anno Domini.
prehistory	Before written records began.
archaeologist	Someone who studies the buildings, tools and other objects of people who lived in the past.

Knowledge

Prehistory is split into 3 periods of time: Stone Age, Bronze Age and Iron Age.

There were different types of homes in prehistoric Britain.

These changed when people had stronger materials.

People used to hunt for food, make tools and clothes.

The place Skara Brae tells us how people used to live in the past.

Skills

- Place the events of the time studied on a time line.
- Use evidence to describe the activities of people in the Stone Age, Bronze Age and Iron Age.
- Ask questions about the past and discuss my thoughts.
- Use evidence found by others to describe buildings in the past.